The Whyman Project to Perform Genre-Bending Chamber Music in the Mansion
Greystone Mansion presents Concert Featuring Prize-winning Local Artists

On Sunday, June 21 at 2 p.m., Beverly Hills historic Greystone Mansion will host an intimate concert featuring The Whyman Project, a unique collaboration of string players and a rhythm section.

Ryan Whyman, who plays piano and accordion and is the composer, crosses genres between classical, jazz, pop, rock and film music, bringing his own unique twist to everything, redefining and expanding the piano quintet and jazz genres. Each accomplished in their own right, musicians Mary Keating and Jordan Slocum violinists; Brandon Encinas Viola and Billy Tobenkin, who play cello; and, Rodrigo Moreno Bass and Michael Enriquez who play percussion; are based in Los Angeles and play original music and arrangements by Ryan Whyman. In May of 2014, The Whyman Project was chosen as one of the winners of the prestigious Beverly Hills Auditions.

The City of Beverly Hills prides itself in bringing its residents, visitors and patrons of the arts the finest in solo and chamber music performances. Since 1994, under Artistic Director Laura Schmieder, Music in the Mansion has presented concerts featuring selected prize-winning international and local artists. From January through June, monthly Sunday concerts are followed by meet-the-artists receptions and a tour of the first floor of the Greystone Mansion.

Tickets for The Whyman Project are $20 per ticket. Seating is limited and advanced tickets are encouraged.
